

Hey!!

My name is Billie Eilish and I'm 16 years old. I live in Carmel, a small town in California, with my parents and my cat. I have an older sister, but she no longer lives at home. Currently I speak Spanish, English and French.

Among my hobbies, I would highlight playing volleyball, which is the sport that I've been practicing almost all my life; videogames, writing and listening to music, reading and watching movies. Furthermore, I love hanging out with my group of friends and travelling. I enjoy visiting new places and discovering their people and culture.

I consider myself a bit messy, funny and extroverted, although I can seem serious at first sight. I'm really excited to start this new experience and I hope we all can meet soon.

Can't wait to see you!!
